RAILROAD AGAINST STEAMBOAT.

A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, thus describes a race between one of the finest North river steamboats and a train of cars on the Hudson river railroad:

"A short time since I embarked on the steamer Oregon for Albany. At six o'clock P. M., we left the dock and glided up the river. As the eye glances through the gorgeous saloons, and surveys the comfort of state-room and table prepared for the traveler, and the smooth surface of the Hudson, so delightfully adapted to steamboat navigation, the question suggested itself, "can this mode of travel ever be seriously interfered with by any railroad? Will these elegant accommodations have to give way, and such floating palaces as this, soon belong to the things that are passed, and be considered as a mode of travel behind the times?" The passengers were standing about, impatiently awaiting the summons of tea. A group of us stood upon the quarter deck in conversation, when suddenly, hark! the shrill whistle sounds ashore. It seems a long way off: again it sounds; and see, yonder, on the eastern shore, just above the trees, and far astern, a white cloud of steam appears; nearer and nearer sounds the whistle; then we heard a loud roaring like a cataract, then the regular clanking of machinery, and suddenly emerging from the trees that had hidden it, the locomotive and a long train of cars of the Hudson river railroad come dashing furiously along. In a moment they seem rapidly gaining upon us; in another they are up with us. Now for a race. The Oregon against the world! A crowd gathers upon the boat's side, next the eastern shore. The passengers in the cars shake their hands at us from the windows. On rushes the train, with a roar like Niagara. The amazing celerity of movement of the machinery calls forth many expressions of admiration. On speeds the Oregon! but in an instant, quicker than thought, the cars are for ahead of us; in another they are scarcely perceptible in the dusk of evening; and soon the sound dies away, and the echoes for a moment reverberate amid the palisades, then gently and gradually cease. The race is over; it lasted but a moment, and the passengers in the cars are flying at a rate of speed that will enable the traveler, when the road is completed, to retire to bed in Albany at 10 P. M., just as the Oregon's passengers are throwing out their boots, and locking their state room doors, preparatory to a snooze until morning.

Three years hence, (or as soon as the Hudson river railroad runs thro' to Albany,) there will doubtless be a night express train to Buffalo in connection with it; and then giving the traveler eleven hours time to accomplish the distance from Albany to Buffalo, we shall find him comfortably taking his breakfast on board of the steamboat on Lake Erie, having left New York the evening previous; while the passengers per Oregon would be in the neighborhood of Schenectady, yawning and impatient at the thought of a whole day's travel on the railroad. These thoughts occurred to me as we hurried down stairs to tea: and it seemed that the whistle of the locomotive shrieking wildly as it dashed along, sounding prophetically, telling us of the complete change in the method of traveling soon to take place upon the banks of the Hudson. The impetuous American character will be content with nothing but the fastest mode. The owners of the seboats seem aware that their glory is departing, and to think it useless to resist the current."

BARNUM TAKEN IN.—The Bridgeport (Connecticut) Farmer, (the place of residence of Barnum, the great curiosity man,) relates the following:

"An ingenious Swede, in New York, being in want of funds, resolved to try an experiment on Barnum. He accordingly called upon him, at his office, one morning last week, and exhibited an apparently fine and well-finished little painting, on board, of the renowned Jenny Lind, stating, at the same time, in badly-spoken English, that he was just from Stockholm, where he obtained the picture, which he brought with him, as sort of keepsake, in honor of his distinguished countrywoman; but, being in want of means, he had concluded to part with the precious article, and presuming Mr. B. would feel desirous of obtaining it, he had determined to make him the first offer. Mr. B. inquired if it was oil painting? and being answered in the affimative, he eagerly asked the price; to which the modest Swede replied, 'Only twenty-five dollars!' The money was counted out, the adventurer, quickly pocketing it, went his way. Mr. B. congratulated himself upon his good luck, in obtaining a fine and original picture of the famous Jenny in oil, and forthwith went to an establishment near by, in pursuit of a frame. Finding one that suited his fancy, the price of which was fifteen dollars, he proceeded to give directions concerning it. 'But,' said the man, 'you don't want so expensive a frame for that thing.' 'Why not,' responded B, with a look of surprise. 'It is the only oil painting of Jenny in the country. I just purchased it of a Swede, direct from Stockholm, for twenty-five dollars, and design to have it hang in a conspicuous place in my office. 'Twenty-five dollars!" exclaimed the salesman. 'Why it's nothin-mor ner less than an old lithograph, pasted on a board, and painted in water colors. You can buy any quantity of them for twenty-five cents.' 'The biter bit!' shouted Barnum, and stepped. The painting, as purchased, has been added to the other curiosities of the Museum."

THE EFFECTS OF SHOT ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE.—You can form no idea of the storm of balls and shells which crossed each other in their dread course. Before and around the spot on which Field-Marshal Radetzki was standing the heavy sixteen pound shots ploughed up the ground, tracing in one place a deep furrow, and cutting down a tree like a stubble in another. It is remarkable how each kind of missle has its own characteristic. There is the tremenduous howl of the round large shot, the whistle of the musket ball, the hiss of the shell, like that of the Catherine wheel firework, and then its detonation as its bursts. Of these last many which fell amongst us, missed fire, and many exploded harmless in the air; but where one fell and did its office the effect was fearful. One such struck an officer in the breast, exploded at that instant, struck down a man to the right and left, and cut off the upper part of the officer's body in such a fashion that his frightened horse galloped off some distance with the feet of the corpse in the stirrups. Such are the spectacles which a field of battle occasionally presents. Not far off lay a Piedmontese artillerist who had been struck on the forehead with a spent six-pound shot, which remained in the wound. A huzzar had been killed at the same instant with his horse, by a shot which passed through the neck of the latter; they had sunk together, the rider still on the saddle, and the sabre still in his hand.

The sudden collapse of a man in full vigor is what is most fearful to behold. One sinks without a groan, another jumps high from the ground with a shriek, falls over, lies stiff, and is dead! I saw a Granzer from the Banat, with a ball in his forehead, falter a few paces, leaning on his musket like a drunken man, and then, after a faint whisper about his home expire. Over the town the cannon smoke had spread a colossal canopy, which floated motionless above the roofs like the crown of the Italian pine trees.—Scenes from the Life of a Soldier in Active Service in 1849.

☞ The lady, formerly a milliner, but now made Baroness of Rassmussen, whom the King of Denmark lately married, seems to resemble her namesake, Lola Montes, and is said to wield an influence with the King, in favor of revolutionery principles, similar to that of Lola Montes with the King of Bavaria.

LOOK AT THIS, EMIGRANTS AND OTHERS!
300 FAMILIES WANTED, WHO wish Homes. Having completed my survey in the southern part of the city of San Jose, in all 900 lots, 25 by 47 1 2 varas, and being desirous to have improvements go on rapidly, I propose to give 300 lots to settlers who will build a neat, suitable house on each lot, and fence the same.
I have also over 100 lots, 50 varas square, in the Old Survey of the city, which I will sell low, and give time on part. The lots I own in the Old and New surveys of the city are decidedly the best locations for buildings, being high and dry, and never subject to overflow; with the very best mountain water, obtained at the depth of 12 to 14 feet.
I think lumber shippers would do well to call and take a look at my lots. I will give them lots to build houses on, or will exchange lots for lumber of all kinds, or houses.
THE VALLEY.—We have a greater number of acres equal to the best Illinois land, than can be seen in any other north or east of us, in California; and the grain-growing portions of the world, so far as I am acquainted, cannot equal us in producing wheat, both in quality and quantity: 60 bushels have been raised to the acre, and there can be seen now in the fields and gardens of our farmers, as fine crops as a majority of the States can produce at and vegetables of all kinds in abundanceg rowing, and that too, without rain or watering.
CLIMATE AND HEALTH—Listen, now:—The average summer heat is 75 to 80 degs., with cool nights; no musquitoes, day or night; no fever and ague, and no disease peculiar to the valley or town, winter or summer.—We have some of the first settlers living with us yet, over 100 years of age, and one in particular, over 110, sound in body and mind. We have had but one death out of the immigration of 1846, an old gentleman, who was broken down with disease before he came to our city.
THE MORALS of our city and vicinity will, I make no doubt, compare with those of the best of our neighboring cities and towns. We are a law abiding and a law supporting people, and have our churches and schools as well as others.
Persons wishing lots will apply soon to the subscriber in the south end of the city. JAMES F. REED.

The Governor of the State of California, to all to whom these presents may come; Greeting:

In compliance with the long established and appropriate custom of our fathers, as well as in accordance with his own feelings, the undersigned, Governor of the State of California, hereby recommends that Saturday, the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, be set apart and observed by the people of California, as a day of solemn thanksgiving to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, for the unnumbered blessings bestowed by Him upon our young State and people; and especially for our admission into the happy family of States.

Given under my hand, at the Pueblo de San Jose, the fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and of the Independence of the United States, the seventy-fifth.

PETER H. BURNETT.

☞ Should the steamer now due bring the intelligence that Congress has granted the appropriation asked for by our Representatives, California will at once assume a position financially as proud and elevated as is that which she occupies in the confederacy into which she has just been admitted. Her credit will at once be restored, and the indebtedness which necessity has compelled the State authorities to incur, will be discharged without delay. But of this result, so far as it depends upon the action of Congress, we have no hope. We are still of the opinion that all that will be done, in addition to our admission, at this session, will be the granting, perhaps, of a quantity of land; and in that case, there seems to be no other way to accomplish so desirable an object as the payment of our debts, than that which we have on several occasions pointed out. Such a course would at once relieve us from pecuniary embarrassment, place the credit of the State on a permanent and elevated basis, and enable her to meet all present liabilities promptly. A State Government sprung into existence without a dollar in the treasury, and if she succeeds finally in bringing up her evidences of debt to a par value, without a resort to such extraordinary measures as the wisdom of the framers of the Constitution left open for that purpose, she will indeed have accomplished a desideratum unsurpassed and unparalleled in the financial history of any State.

However, we shall wait patiently the result, satisfied at present with the prophecy that those who depend upon the action of Congress to relieve us, place their hopes upon a broken reed.

DR. SMITH.—We perceive by the last evening's Picayune, that this gentleman has resigned his office as City Physician. The propriety of his doing so will be very evident, when it is considered that he has for some time past been debarred from a lucrative and extensive private practice, while holding this position; and further that it was impossible for a conscientious man to occupy that place with so slender appliances at command as have been furnished the city physician by the Common Council. As a surgeon, and a medical practitioner, we don't believe that Dr. Smith has a superior in this community.

MERCHANT STREET.—The ordinance for opening Merchant street, passed the Board of Assistants on Tuesday evening. The street will run from Montgomery to Kearny street, and will be a much-needed improvement, opening as it will a thoroughfare direct from the Plaza to the principal business street of the city.

PRESENTATION.—The St. Francis Hook and Ladder Company have presented Miss M. A. Thompson, with a beautiful Gold Bracelet, manufactured from native specimens, for voluntary services in constructing their tasty and appropriate Banner.

CREATION OF OFFICES.—The Board of Aldermen, Monday evening, on motion of Ald. Leonard, refused to concur in the ordinance creating the office of keeper of the City Hall. This is very well. There is no necessity for saddling this extra expense upon the city. It should be made the duty of the Comptroller to look to the rents of the building, without an additional expense of three thousand dollars per year. Mr. Comptroller Berry gets a good salary—we may say a right snug salary—for which he is probably ambitious to render an equivalent service. Mr. Comptroller Berry is allowed five thousand dollars per year for clerk hire, and if the clerk or himself cannot attend to the collection of a few hundred or a few thousand dollars rents of a building in which his office is located, without extra compensation, the city better embody that in his list of duties. We will undertake to find an hombre who will not only collect the rents, and attend to the City Hall, as a part of his duties, but will be satisfied with a much less salary than goes into the pocket of Mr. Comptroller Berry, and take his pay in scrip at that. If such offices are allowed, the next thing to be asked for by city officers, will be sweepers of their private rooms, and chamber-maid duties of the household.

A "MODEL" CONTROVERSY.—Dr. Collyer, the "Model Artiste" man, published a card, intimating that he had spit in the face, and tweaked the nose of an editorial neighbor. The editor answers that a man who beat his wife and ran away from England with another woman, whom he now beats at pleasure, "can be nothing less than a coward, and is not likely to spit in any body's face." It is said that the Doctor has been seen for a day or two past, with a very suspicious looking cowhide in his hands, but if all is true that our neighbor says of him, he will hardly have the courage to use it. A man who beats his wife is too great a coward to make the attempt upon sterner stuff. Whether or not he does disgrace humanity by such acts, we do not undertake to say,

Since the above was in type, we understand that the Dr. did attempt a "model" thrashing, yesterday, upon the poor editorial hombre, but that he got the worst of it. Another story is that the editor suffered some, and that the doctor inflicted a very just punishment for the attack upon his wife.

In regard to the article which caused the rage of Dr. C., so far as it referred to the lady, it will meet with decided condemnation. No editor is justifiable in dragging the name of a female before the public, because of a quarrel with her husband. As for the Doctor, he can fight his own battles.

AN ALARM BELL.—A morning paper complains of the fact that the communication from the Chief Engineer, in relation to the erection of an alarm bell, was referred to the Fire and Water Committee. This was done, not for the purpose of delaying the matter, or throwing any obstacles in the way, but simply with a view to the selection of a location. It should be in the central part of the city, and we would suggest to the committee that the roof of the new Union Hotel, fronting on Portsmouth Square, would be an appropriate place. It is central, elevated, and fire-proof, three important considerations.

COUNTY TREASURER.—The gentlemanly County Treasurer, George Endicott, Esq., resigned his office on Tuesday evening, and Chas. E. Buckingham, Esq., was appointed by the Court of Sessions to fill the vacancy. The duties of the office in the past have been attended to with fidelity, and we have no doubt the same promptness and business capacity will characterize the future, under the new official hombre.

THE NEW ENGLAND SOCIETY.—The following persons have been selected as the standing committees of this society:

Finance Committee—H. C. Dodge, J. C. Derby, W. A. Dana.

Vigilance Committee—H. K. W. Clarke, O. N. Bush, John Satterlee.

Committee on Ways and Means—G. W. Gibbs, Dr. Damon, W. H. Clark.

☞ About twenty interments took place yesterday, as will be seen by the report of the city sexton. This mortality is but little, if any, greater than was experienced one year since, with one-third the present population. It is, too, evidently not on the increase, and besides is augmented by the throngs arriving from Sacramento and the mines.

AN EXCURSION.—"A real estate broker, an editor and an Hon. Member of Assembly," made an excursion to the Mission, on Sunday. Good enough for them, especially as they had the felicity of escorting two accomplished and beautiful ladies.

EXCHANGE OF CIVILITIES.—The editorial fraternity, or rather a portion of them, have been engaged in exchanging civilities with their fellow citizens for the past two or three days. The gentlemen who are brought before the public for fancied or real causes, respond after the following manner:

☞ To the Editors of the * * * I have twice seen in your paper a notice reflecting upon the establisment under my charge. If another advertisement of the same character meets my eye, you may depend upon a reception that will carry with it feelings of no very pleasant character.

☞ A CARD.—The public are respectfully solicited to suspend their opinion of the scurrilous attack made on my character by the Editor of the * * * in the leading article of the 24th ult., as it is my intention to give them an opportunity of proving the charges contained in the publication. I deem it a duty I owe myself to state that there is not a shadow of truth in it, and that the production is one tissue of falsehoods.

Gentlemen in possession of "percussion lock and mahogany stock" arrangments, will send them along. Contracts for coffee received until the hour for going to press.

FUN IN SACRAMENTO.—We clip the following interesting paragraphs from the Transcript of Tuesday:

Query.—We are assured by the Attorney General that the laws of the late Legislature were framed expressly to protect Capt. Sutter in the possession of this part of the State, whether he had a valid title or not.—Daily Tribune.

The above is from the Tribune of Wednesday. We are requested to inquire of that paper, the name of the Attorney General who imparted the information.—Transcript.

The Attorney General we mean is E. J. C. Kewen.—Daily Tribune.

The man who penned the above, is an UNPRINCIPLED SCOUNDREL and an UNMITIGATED LIAR. Now let him show his hand.

E. J. C. KEWEN.

NUISANCES.—Our neighbor of the "Pic," is after the nuisances about town with a sharp pick—and in his laudable efforts to obtain an abatement of them, we join him heart and hand. The "San Francisco Bakery," on the corner of Stockton and Jackson streets, is presented to the public as a nuisance of the worst description. There is scarcely a Restaurant in the city, where the back premises are not equally "redolent" with abominable smells, from the decomposition of offal. Need, truly, is there for an efficient Board of Health, or pestilence would take up, in this city, its permanent abode.

REDIVUS.—We were greatly delighted to find, the other day, as we passed to our domicil up Pacific street, that our esteemed friend Capt. O'DONNELL was back again in his old, or rather new quarters, opposite the City Hall;—having, with an energy that baulks at no difficulty, rebuilt on the site of the dwelling destroyed in the September fire, and is under full headway, as will be seen by reference to his advertisement in another column. Any person wishing to buy or lease real estate, will find Capt. O'Donnell ready to treat on reasonable terms.

☞ We understand some very necessary alterations in the kitchen arrangements of the Model Restaurant, Commercial street, have kept that popular establishment closed for a day or two. It is re-opened to-day, under the same management as heretofore, and where the public can obtain every desirable luxury served up in capital style. Oysters, and all the delicacies of the markets, will be at the command of epicures, and DAVISON will add prompt attention. Call and see him.

☞ Why is it that the Street Commissioner permits piles of lumber and rubbish to block up the sidewalks of those streets which are being improved? Complaints are made to us almost every day that such is the fact, and we usually refer the matter to the city authorities, who should call every city officer to an account. That pile of lumber just below the Bush house, on Clay street, makes a perfect break-neck place of the street.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT BENECIA.—Mr. George K. Davis, formerly of Haverhill, Mass., and who came out in the brig Ark, from Newburyport, accidentally shot himself Tuesday morning while gunning, in company with Mr. Gale and T. R. Hawley, of this city. The whole left side of his breast was torn off by the discharge.

BOARD OF HEALTH NOTICE.—The Board of Health are moving in the matter of disposing of the filth about town. In another column a notice appears, asking proposals for removing garbage from certain localities. Contractors should look at it.

MISSING.—A gentleman named Alexander Marshall, left this city about ten days since, intending to cross the Bay, since which time nothing has been heard of him. Fears for his safety are entertained by his friends.

THE "UNION."—To-day the first dinner will be given at the splendid new hotel under the management of Mr. Isaac M. Hall.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY.—Starr, Minturn & Co. will sell at 11 o'clock to-day, a variety of articles for freight and charges.

SMALL ADVERTISERS.—There is a class of hombres in all cities, and we are by no means free from them, who call upon the office of a newspaper occasionally with a little advertisement of very great importance to themselves in particular. They are, to be sure, your very particular friends. They consider that you will take as much interest in their little affairs, forsooth, as they do themselves. Of course, you will not fail to give them a most conspicuous place in your columns, under the editor's name, or over it, and then call attention to it in a lengthened and puffy paragraph in your best style.

Of course they never are so vulgar as to call upon Mr. Cash, the bookkeeper, poor, plodding soul, and pay for their "ad." Not they. Nothing will do but the able services of the ablest man in the establishment—the responsible editor—and with him sub rosa they must consult. "Insert three times," and "send bill"—the collector can't tell you where, though he knows every man in town, better than they know themselves. And this is the end of it. Unless figures lie, there are "on the books" of every printing establishment in this city, any quantity of these same hombres' names. For, as fast as they are kicked out of one office, they proceed to a second, and thus continue their petty tricks as small advertisers.

ELEGANT DAGUERREOTYPES.—We have been shown some excellent pictures taken by Mr. Fred'k Coombs, at the corner of Clay and Montgomery streets. Mr. C. is a very good artist, has an abundance of materials, and what we like best of all, allows you to sit so much at your ease as to give you a daguerreotype likeness which is perfectly unconstrained, a part of the manifestations generally quite overacted by those who attempt this work of art.

For a Christmas or New Year's present to wife, child, or a loved lady, we know of nothing so appropriate as a nice picture in a locket, or case. And from this to the 15th inst. is all the time we have left in which to effect so desirable an object. Call on Mr. C. then, early.

"JUST COME TO REPORT."—The Board of Assistant Aldermen had their cogitations disturbed, on Tuesday evening, by a clear, ringing nasal sound from the probocis of an hombre who had taken lodgings on the board. After finishing the business of the evening, one of the city fathers, having a fatherly regard for sleeping beauties, roused up the individual, and informed him of the fact that that was no place for sleeping, and was met with the reply, "Why, I have just come to report!" The reporter of a morning paper had been enjoying a pleasant nap, and yet the business of the city went on as usual.

BERFORD & CO.'S EXPRESS LINE.—We have often spoken of the enterprize of Berford & Co. to whom we have more frequently been indebted for facilities in our correspondence with San Jose; and we refer to them now for the purpose of calling attention to their announcement in another part of our paper. The extent of travel with the Valley above has been largely increased by the cheap and rapid communication afforded by daily stages, and we are glad to know that the Express Line stands high in public favor. The proprietors, Messrs. Crandal & Hall are competent, careful men, who personally conduct and superintend their enterprise, and therefore the public may eepend upon being well served.

THE RAINS are probably now falling in all parts of the State, within a small area around the Bays near our city. The "hole in the wall" made by the "golden gate," and the strong winds of the sea to blow over this tract of our State, and thus keep at a distance, for a time, the reign of the rain-king.

THE BARK SPLENDID.—It will be perceived by our list of interments that the Transcript was in error in saying that no deaths occurred on board this vessel on her voyage from Sacramento, two having been buried from that bark yesterday.

THE MARIPOSA.—The steamer Mariposa, which was sunk by coming in collision with the West Point, in Suisan Bay, has been towed down to the city, and is undergoing repairs, preparatory to taking her place in the line again.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—Coroner Gallagher yesterday held an inquest on the body of another of the unfortunate victims of the Saganore explosion. He was a hand on board. Verdict in accordance with the facts.

THE ANTELOPE.—This splendid steamship is rapidly filling up. We were in the office yesterday, and there was a crowd of returning diggers registering their names for tickets.

MORE OF A GOOD THING.—Annan, Lord & Co., yesterday sent us another bottle of that tip-top article of cherry brandy. Every body pronounces it A, No. 1.

☞ Have the Placer Times and the Daily Tribune been suspended?

LATE FROM THE SCENE OF DIFFICULTIES.

A Skirmish with the Indians!—Dr. Dixon, of St. Louis, killed.

The following letter from Judge Daniels puts the Transcript in possession of the latest intelligence from the scene of Indian difficulties. The letter is dated COLOMA, Nov. 4, 1850.

Messrs. Editors—Through the politeless of Mr. A. W. Bee, of Placerville, who arrived here to-day, we are put in possession of late intelligence from the region of our difficulties with the Indians.

Yesterday (Sunday) a scouting party, ten in number, fell in with a party of fifty or sixty Indians, about 12 miles east of Placerville, located in a deep ravine, upon which a smart skirmish ensued, but were forced to retreat after fighting a short time, with the loss of Dr. Dixon, of St. Louis, and a Delaware Indian, killed, and Capt. Francisco wounded severely in the lower jaw. They report 8 or 10 Indians killed, and many wounded.

Our party retreated as far as Johnson's ranche, six miles above Placerville, and sent into that place for reinforcements; and I learn that some 200 volunteers will start for the scene of action to-morrow. I have just learned that the body of Dr. Dixon has been recovered, horribly mangled—being literally cut to pieces by the savages.

I learn also that Col. McKinney, with a small mounted force, has departed for the vicinity of the Middle Fork of the Cosumnes, and in all probability has had an engagement.

Col. Rogers, with his command are preparing for vigorous measures against the enemy, and from the known character of the officers in command, there will not be a useless slaughter of the Indians, but their only object will be the protection of the lives and property of our fellow citizens.

We expect to hear from headquarters in a few days, and will write you again. Yours, truly,

V. DANIELS.

Four of the above died at the Sacramento Hospital; and seven at the Cholera Hospital.

☞ The Marine Hospital, we learn, dig their own graves, and bury their own dead, and no one is the wiser for it. A death may as well occur in any other part of the heathen world as there, so far us any intelligence of it ever reaching the friends of the deceased through the newspapers is concerned.

☞ Our readers will notice the advertisement of Gov. Burnett in reference to gardening lands at and near Alviso. It is a beautiful section of the Valley, fertile and accessible to market, and will ultimately be of great value.

CARPETING.—Those wishing to furnish their rooms with carpeting at a cheap rate, can do so by calling at Bragg & Whittemore, Sansome street, who offer a fine assortment in lots to suit. See advertisement in another column.

ADMITTED.—At the District Court now in session at Benecia, Hugh McLaughlen, Esq., was admitted as Attorney of Record, and Thomas Baker, Esq. as Attorney to practice in the District Court.

CALAVERAS COUNTY.—John S. Lind and W. Murphy are the members elect from Calaveras County. A. B. Mudge was elected County Treasurer, and J. L. Trask, Justice of the Peace for Middle Bar.

DEATHS AT BENECIA.—Three men that had come from Sacramento sick with the dysentery, died between Saturday and Monday, on board the Wm. Henry, at Benecia.

DIED.—Captain Fordham died at Benecia last Sunday. He had just recovered from the cholera, when he was attacked by fever, which ended in death.

NOTES OF TRAVELS IN MEXICO.

No. 4.

TEPIC.—This town is situated about 75 miles in the interior, from San Blas, its nearest seaport. The descent from this to the coast, as already described, is very considerable. From this comparative altitude is derived all the difference in climate between the two towns, although the one is cooled somewhat by the breezes of the sea, and the other by those of the mountains.

Tepic is situated on a vast plain, which is somewhat below the level of the table lands of the country still farther to the interior. It is by nature every way adapted to good health, as in fact are all the cities of the interior of Mexico. This fact, however, has not prevented its visitation by cholera, that mighty scourge of the 'round globe,' which travels like the course of civilization and natural light, from the East ever onward toward the West.

And is it strange—that theory which the great Webster propounded with regard to Slavery, and which other men of wisdom have held in regard to the cholera—that it never could exist in a country like California or Mexico? In what are nine-tenths of the land surface of the earth better than this same country of California and Mexico? The fact is that the phrase 'green earth' applies to but little of its land, which is mostly barren. What are the greatest parts of Africa, Australia and Asia, but exemplifications of this view of geography? And the explorations of Lieut. Wilkes and many others fully confirm this view. No 'divine decree' ever prohibited Slavery or cholera from a single foot of the earth on which man could exist. They have existed in all eastern countries and ages, and nothing could be more surprising than the theory with which Daniel Webster saw fit last February to enlighten the public mind on this subject. This in passing.

There are patches of arable land about Tepic, though most of the plain is barren. I have nowhere seen a more beautiful garden than that at Forbes's factory, about a mile to the north of the town. In it were all the rich fruits of the tropics in the greatest profusion, coffee, oranges and lemons, bananas, cocoa, &c., &.

How gentle and how cheap are the amenities of life! While I live, the kind smiles of Messrs. Forbes and Barron, of Tepic, will be remembered, together with the ungracious demeanor of the American vice-consul in Mazatlan. From the crowded state of Tepic at the time of my visit, I am sure that both of these gentlemen must have been sadly "bored" by the curious Yankees. The town was nearly full of Americans at the time of our arrival; and daily more were coming. A large part of these were in the habit of calling upon Mr. Forbes, or Mr. Barron, to make a thousand inquiries, as though they were our elder brothers; and they treated us all as kindly as though they had been such. I have yet to hear of the first word to the contrary. Mr. Barron went to San Blas in our company, with two female relatives, and to the last his gentle and courteous demeanor won our highest regards.

Mr. Forbes is of Scotch origin, and has long been in Mexico. He is very extensively known, and to him the people seem very greatly attached. His just and equitable dealings with them for so many years, not less than the suavity natural to him, have tended to effect this. Mr. Barron, I think, was born in Mexico, of English parents. Speaking both languages with the fluency of a native, he is a good specimen of an English gentleman, and as such, will command respect anywhere. Say what you will of Englishmen, a good specimen of one of this nation is heaven high above anything which can be found elsewhere among all the nations of the earth, except our own. This I experienced throughout Mexico: in Mazatlan, Tepic, Guadelajara, San Luis Potosi, and Tampico.

The Cotton Factory in Tepic, formerly known as Whiting's, now Forbes's, was situated near the garden above mentioned, and was well worth the trouble of a visit. Mr. Whiting, I understand, went out to Mexico many years since, from Massachusetts; and while his native State was becoming a land of spindles, his inclinations led him to construct a factory in the land of the Mexicans. Capital was soon found, and the heavy machinery was transported around the Horn, and over the "cerros" and "barrancas" to the neighborhood of Guadelajara and Tepic. Here massive walls of masonry in the style of the Aztecs, arose to enclose the works of an English and American manufacturer. Mr. Whiting employed native operatives, as the importation of the fair-haired Saxon maidens, if not impracticable, was found to be useless, so soon were they seduced into the toils of matrimony. I am pained to add that this old gentleman, shortly before my arrival, left Tepic for the land of gold, and that he died in this city some time last winter.

Health and Police.—Messrs Selover, Stewart, and Middleton.

Judiciary.—Messrs. Mott, Selover, and Middleton.

STOLE A WIFE AND A FORTUNE.—Justice Jeremiah Root, at the Six Mile House, on the American Fork, advertises his wife as having left his house, taking with her a little daughter two and a half years old, and also $12.000 in cash. It is supposed that she left in company with a young man named Henry Fairbanks, about 24 years old, with long dark hair, and very light beard. The wife left at home, five other children, three of whom are sick. Mr. Root offers a reward of $2,000 for the recovery of the property and child. The woman is 37 years old, about middling size, fair complexion, blue eyes, good figure, has fine new upper teeth, set on gold plate.

A COWHIDING.—Some gentleman, who fancied himself aggrieved by some other gentleman, took the gentlemanly course of revenging himself, by administering a very gentlemanly cowhiding, in Montgomery street, opposite Delmonico's, yesterday afternoon. The individual upon whom the whipping was inflicted, started off like a quarter-horse, and the gentleman who held the lash applied it with redoubled energy. San Francisco is advancing rapidly in civilization and refinement.

THE STEAMER.—The mail steamer now past due, if she left Panama on the anticipated day, is looked for with much anxiety by commercial men and correspondents. The probability is, that she did not leave Panama on the 15th ult., as was designed. The steamer Isthmus, however, probably left from the 15th to the 20th, and may be expected within a day or two.

CONFLAGRATION.—The Pic. announces that a lady caught fire Sunday evening, and was severely burned. The sparks must have been "about" as usual on Sunday evening.

ILLNESS OF A MEMBER ELECT.—We are pained to learn that Mr. Mc Candless, member of the Legislature elect from Shasta county, lies very ill with the cholera, in this city.

CHOLERA AT SAN JOSE.—The cholera is said to prevail to a large extent in San Jose valley, among the Indians and Mexicans.

THE SQUATTER TRIALS.—The trial of the Sacramento Squatters, will not probably take place until the first of next week.

DIED.

SAN JOSE. SAN JOSE.
BERFORD & CO'S LINE
OF EXPRESS MAIL STAGES,
HALL & CRANDAL, PROPRIETORS,

Are now running every morning to San Jose, leaving Berford & Co's office in the plaza, at 8 o'clock, A. M., and the City Hotel in San Jose at 7 o'clock, A. M.

The reduced rate of fare puts it in the power of every one to visit the beautiful and healthful valley of Santa Clara. There is no more charming drive in California than that from San Francisco to San Jose, and as one is whirled rapidly through the oak openings and across the level plains under the skillful driving of Professors Dillon or Crandal, who drive their own coaches, he finds that pleasure is united with business, and wonders he has never made the trip before.

The great advantage this line possesses over all others, is that the Stages were bought expressly for the road, and with a particular attention to safety, while the drivers, who have served a long apprenticeship from New England to Mexico, make the quickest time and never meet with accidents, which are so likely to occur with the old fashioned stage coaches. We invite our friends to give the line a trial.

HALL.—This establishment, situated on Portsmouth Square, San Francisco, State of California, will be opened for the reception of guests on THURSDAY, the 7th of November, inst., under the management of Isaac M. There are 100 rooms, all finished in the most substantial manner, lathed and plastered, and hard finished walls. Each room is furnished with a stove and other bedroom furniture complete; bells are fitted up, communicating with the office from each room. The dining room will accommodate 150 persons, and the public may safely confide in the well known talent of Mr. Hall to make this department one of the most inviting of the house; all the delicacies of the season will be found on the table, and the wines the best the market affords. The proprietors confidently entertain the hope that this enterprise, involving at least $150,000, will meet its due appreciation by the public, and that the effort on our part to present a hotel where every comfort afforded in hotels in the Atlantic States may be found, will meet the reward of public patronage.

IMPORTANT NEWS from NICARAGUA by the steamer California.—Hon. E. G. Squier, late Minister from the Government of the United States to Central America, reports that: "In passing from one ocean to the other, by way of Nicaragua $15 will suffice to transport a passenger across the country. Tolerable accommodations may be obtained for about $9, and one may go across in a cart for $7. The Nicaragua route is by many a mile nearer to all the ports of the United States, and the salubrity of the climate must be deemed an advantage that Panama cannot possess."

RIDICULE.

I know of no principle which it is of more importance to fix in the minds of young people, than that of the most determined resistance to the encroachments of ridicule. Give up to the world, and to the ridicule with which the world enforces its dominion, every trifling question of manner and appearance—it is to toss courage and firmness to the winds, to combat with the mass upon such subjects as these. But learn from your earliest days to insure your principles against the perils of ridicule; you can no more exercise your reason, if you live in the constant dread of laughter, than you can enjoy your life if you are in the constant terror of death. If you think it right to differ from the times, and to make a stand for any valuable point of morals, do it, however rustic, however antiquated, however pedantic it may appear; do it, not for insolence, but seriously and gravely, as a man who wore a soul of his own in his bosom, and did not wait till it was breathed into him by the breath of fashion. Let men call you mean if you know you are just; hypocritical, if you are honestly religious; pusillanimous, if you feel that you are firm; resistance soon converts unprincipled wit into sincere respect; and no aftertime can tear from you those feelings which every man carries within him who has made a noble and successful exertion in a virtuous cause. [Sidney Smith.

A Revolutionary Matron.—Perhaps no saying of Washington, says the Richmond Republican, is more frequently quoted upon patriotic occasions in Virginia, than the following:

"Leave me but a banner to plant upon the mountains of Augusta, and I will rally around me the men who will lift our bleeding country from the dust, and set her free."

The incident, however, which led to this remark, is not so generally known. But it is one which does immortal honor to the fair women of Virginia, and lessens our wonder at the deeds of the Virginia heroes who sprung from such a stock. It is thus related in Howe's Historical Collection:

"When the British force under Tarleton drove the Legislature from Charlottesville to Stanton, the Sabbath evening was broken in the latter town by the beat of the drum, and volunteers were called for to prevent the passage of the British through the mountains at Rockfish Gap. The elder sons of Mr. Lewis, who then resided at the old fort, were absent with the Northern army. Three sons, however, were at home, whose ages were 17, 15, and 13 years. Mr. Lewis was confined to his room by sickness, but his wife, with the firmness of a Roman matron, called them to her, and bade them fly to the defence of their native land. 'Go, my children,' said she, 'I spare not my youngest, my fair-haired boy, the comfort of my declining years. I devote you all to my country. Keep back the foot of the invader from the soil of Augusta, or see my face no more.'" It was the narration of this incident to Washington, which caused the enthusiastic exclamation so often quoted.

The Storm in Paris.—The great storm in Paris having driven the rats from the river Seine to the vessels and shops, the boys had great sport in putting them to death. As fast as they were killed, their tails were tied to a string, so that at the end of the first day's hunt, when all the gamins repaired to the office of the Prefect of the Seine, to demand the reward offered by law for the destruction of these injurious animals, they counted together some four thousand rat-tails. The next day a still larger number was brought.

KLAMATH GOLD MINES, River and Town—One of the most extensive fields for speculation at present in California.

The attention of the public is now called to this very important part of California. The town of Klamath is situated on the bank and at the vicinity of the mouth of a river, upon the numerous tributaries of which the most productive and extensive gold mines have been discovered of any now in existence in California. The Harbor (at the upper end of which this beautiful town site is situated) is both commodious and secure, and possesses the very superior advantage over all the other ports upon the coast between the Columbia river and San Francisco of a perfectly safe entrance. The river is a magnificent stream and navigable by steamers, according to the opinion of steamboat captains and others in every way competent to judge of the matter, at least 70 miles up; at, and even below which point, these very rich gold mines commence. Merchants and capitalists who are desirous of realizing a handsome profit upon their goods and an enormous return for their capital cannot enter into a better speculation or make a more safe investment of their means in any part of California, from the fact that there are at present about 2000 miners at work upon this river and its tributaries; and there is every reason to believe, from the numerous satisfactory statements of the miners, relative to their success during the last year, that next year there will be many times the number. The immediate rush to these mines from all parts will be immense, and in fact almost unprecedented; and this town, which may be said to be adjacent, in consequence of the water communication into the very heart of them, must and will undoubtedly be insured a speedy and almost magic growth, and by this time next year will be a very respectable rival to (if not totally eclipse) Sacramento and Stockton. Many who have, during the last summer expended to such a deplorable extent their useless toil and labor in the southern mines, and have actually lost money in the place of making it, by the unsuccessful and numerous damming operations, and the scarcity of gold there, are strongly recommended to turn their attention to these mines, as the average amount dug last year, putting it at an infinitely lower estimate than from the statements of the miners we would be warranted in putting it, one ounce per day to the man. This alone is sufficient to justify the opinion that there is ample room for more, and when it is taken into consideration that not over one tenth part of the gold region has as yet been explored, the certainty of room is rendered beyond doubt. The enormous tax upon the miners for packing of provisions will next year be effectually obviated by the aid of water communication, which extends into the very heart of the mines. Goods can be taken from the deck of steamers by the miners in the place of the pack-saddle of the mule, and provisions now furnished at an expense of $1 50 for the mere packing, can be afforded for ten cents, thus enabling the miner to lay by the fruits of their labor, instead of expending so great a quota for subsistence. To persons wishing to invest capital to an advantage in town lots, an almost unparalleled money making speculation is now open; as lots at the present time can be procured at a comparatively low figure, and the price that they will be disposed of next spring will be high. Arrangements have been made for a steamer to ply between the town and the mines, which will warrant to miners the supply of provisions forthwith.

A map of the town and river can be seen at Messrs. Shultz & Palmer's, foot of Jackson street; at Bullett & Patrick's, corner of Jackson and Sansome streets; and at Worthington, Beale & Bunting's.

Any required information respecting the Mines, River, Town and Harbor, by application to Mr. John Gray, at Messrs. Schultz & Palmer, or to Mr. T. Bunting, at the firm of Worthington, Beale & Bunting, on Montgomery street. o15

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE of California, District of the County of Santa Clara: Jose De Arnrz vs Genoveva Garcia Mangel, Emanuel Mangel and Lorenzo Geoffrey. Petition to foreclose mortgage, &c.

Whereas, JOSE DE ARNAZ filed in this Court on the 16th day of May, 1850, his petition, showing, among other things, that on the 20th day of December, 1849, Genoveva Garcia Mangel, the wife of Emanuel Mangel, was the owner in fee of a certain house and lot in San Jose, adjoining and in the rear of the house lately occupied by Messrs. Larrain, Benitez & Co., and fronting on Garcia street, did on that day mortgage the same, with the consent of Emanuel Mangel, her husband, to said Arnaz, to secure the sum of five hundred and sixty dollars, payable four months from date: That afterwards, on or about the 15th day of January, 1850, said Emanuel Mangel and Genoveva G. Mangel executed a mortgage on the same premises to one Geoffrey, of San Francisco, for about fourteen hundred dollars; which said mortgage was falsely dated the 19th of December, 1849, with intent to defeat the prior mortgage lien on said real estate, and to cheat and defraud said petitioner out of his debt. Said petitioner prays discovery and full answer to the above facts, that said mortgage to Geoffrey be set aside as fraudulent, and that said premises be sold to pay petitioners's mortgage, and for general relief.

And it being proved by affidavit to the satisfaction of this Court that Emanuel Mangel is a non-resident of this State, notice is hereby given to Emanuel Mangel to be and appear before the Honorable Court of the Third Judicial District, for the County of Santa Clara, on the fourth Monday of December, 1850, at the court house in San Jose, then and there to answer said petition, or, in default thereof, the allegation therein contained will be heard in your absence and decreed accordingly.
